Events
 The Bristol Bus Boycott in 1963 was a protest started because a man named Guy Bailey was refused a job at a bus company because he was black. The boycott brought about the Race Relations Act, making racial discrimination illegal in employment.	 These are the Sari Strikers. They were a group of south Asian women, from London, who went on strike to improve the working conditions and seek equal rights in the factory they worked in.

Lost Mills Project

Bradford's textile mills shaped our city and its many communities. This project aimed to ensure Bradford's unique textile stories are not lost forever.

Did you or a family member work in a mill? Were you involved in a mill closure? We need your stories! If you have a story to share, we'd love to hear from you – please contact your child's class teacher in Year 4!

Important figures
William Cuffay William Cuffay, a black tailor who lived in London, was one of the leaders and martyrs of the Chartist movement, the first mass political movement of the British working class. His grandfather was an African, sold into slavery on the island of St Kitts, where his father was born a slave. 	Rosa Parks Rosa Louise McCauley Parks (February 4, 1913 – October 24, 2005) was an American activist in the civil rights movement best known for her pivotal role in the Montgomery bus boycott.
